This investigation is now closed and there will be no further agency involvement with your family unless we receive another report of abuse or neglect, which, by law, we would need to investigate.

How Findings are Determined.

- A finding of "Ruled Out" means that, based on the available information, it was reasonable to conclude that the alleged abuse or neglect did not occur.

How Certain Types of Abuse or Neglect are Defined.

Physical Abuse includes the following acts or omissions by a person:

- physical injury that results in substantial harm to the child, or the genuine threat of substantial harm from physical injury to the child, including an injury that is at variance with the history or explanation given and excluding an accident or reasonable discipline by a parent, guardian, or managing or possessory conservator that does not expose the child to a substantial risk of harm; or
- failure to make a reasonable effort to prevent an action by another person that results in physical injury that results in substantial harm to the child; or

The records will be redacted to remove the identity of the person who reported the alleged abuse or neglect and any other information which you are not entitled by law to receive.
